

George to chat on UK radio

FORMER Tasmanian singer-songwriter Anita George will feature on TalkSPORT — the UK's largest commercial radio station — this weekend. George and Adelaide artist Glen Skuthorpe will be on the radio from 3pm this Sunday (Tasmanian time). Tasmanian listeners can tune in online at www.talksport.net. "For a girl from an Aussie state with the population of less than half a million, the opportunity to be exposed to a potential UK audience of one million is just mind blowing," George said. Any other unsigned Tasmanian artists keen to get similar exposure can send their music to Steve "Shifty" Sheldon, Refuge Island, PO Box 610, Annerley, QLD, 4103.
